

Resolution #01.05
Adopted: 8/21/93
Amended: 4/26/99
Amended: May 18, 2002

ORGANIZED GROUP DEFINITION

1. Principal activities to be conducted within the Pine Mountain Lake community.
2. Principal purpose must be social, cultural or recreational enhancement of Pine Mountain Lake and its members.
3. Membership in an Organized Group must be limited to members of PMLA and their guests, or renters who have been assigned owner privileges.
4. Meet on a regular basis.

Exception: Those organizations which hold membership in PMLA (in the name of the organization) are exempt from requirements 2 and 3, and shall be granted PML Organized Group status, upon receipt, providing all other rules and regulations are adhered to by the group, its members and guests, ie., churches that are on Association rolls.

5. Organized Groups are required to provide the bylaws which state the group's purpose and membership requirements, a list of officers and the total number of members in the organization. These are to be filed at the Administration Office.
6. Bylaws of the Organized Group shall state their non-profit status.

Privileges:

1. Based on availability, Organized Groups will have the privilege of scheduling use of the Lake Lodge twelve (12) months in advance with no charge for normal use. The Association will have the right to use the Lake Lodge upon forty-five days notice to Organized Groups.
2. Groups will have the privilege of inviting guests to their scheduled function providing such guests are admitted following the normal guest pass procedure in effect at the time of the event. Those organizations which have non-PMLA members (see Exception above) shall, nevertheless, adhere to PMLA's Guest Policies when holding a function. Rules should be given to groups.
3. Groups will have full use of PMLA's equipment which is a standard part of the Lake Lodge facility (kitchen equipment, dishes, silver, etc.)

Responsibilities:

1. Prompt notice to the Administration Office of any cancellation of a schedule event.
2. Strict adherence to the allotted time for use in order to allow the greatest use for other PMLA members.
3. Following a schedule use, the Lake Lodge and its equipment shall be in appropriate condition and appearance for the next scheduled function, i.e., kitchen clean, dance floor clean, carpet vacuumed, tables and chairs put away in their assigned space.
4. Should there be non-compliance with these and other rules and regulations, Organized Group recognition may be withdrawn. Groups will be notified by letter when instances of non-compliance are thought to have occurred.
5. Groups shall promptly notify the Administration office of any change in contract persons whose name and telephone number must be on file.

List of Scheduling Priorities:

1. PMLA shall have scheduling privileges (one (1) year in advance for Association sponsored events or functions. Scheduling for such events shall take place before any other scheduling.
2. Private parties or functions by owners will have scheduling privileges six (6) months in advance. Those parties being catered by PML Country Club will receive priority to book.
3. Organizations and other groups of individuals, not an Organized Group, but sponsored by an owner, shall be treated as private parties for scheduling purpose and must pay appropriate use fees.
4. All private parties will be subject to the appropriate fee schedule of charges.

This resolution rescinds Policy #93.05.

Respectfully submitted,

Bill Floren, Secretary
